

May 11: Annie McHale “Narrow but not Limited”

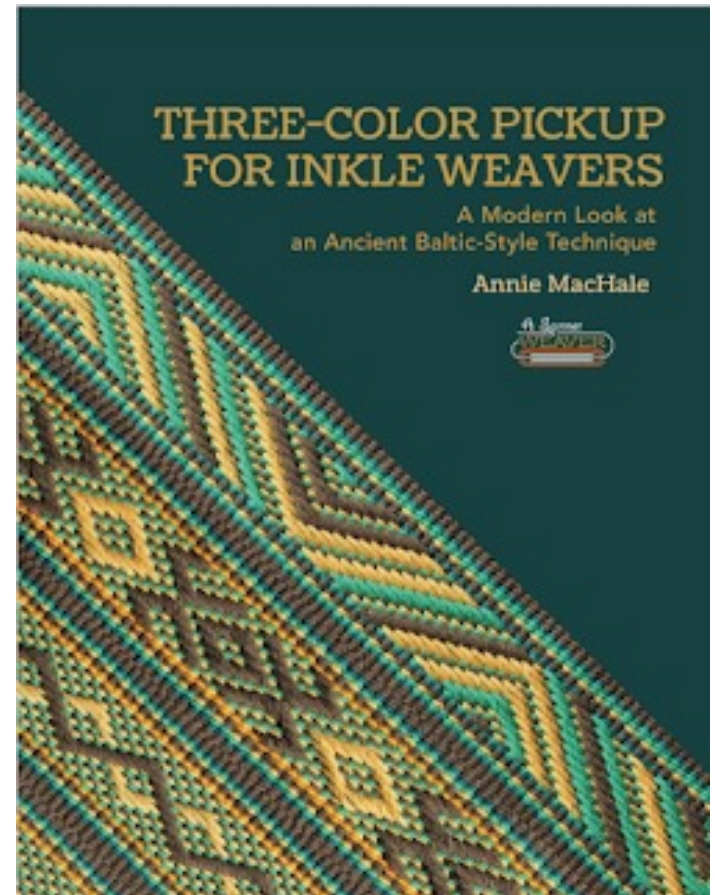

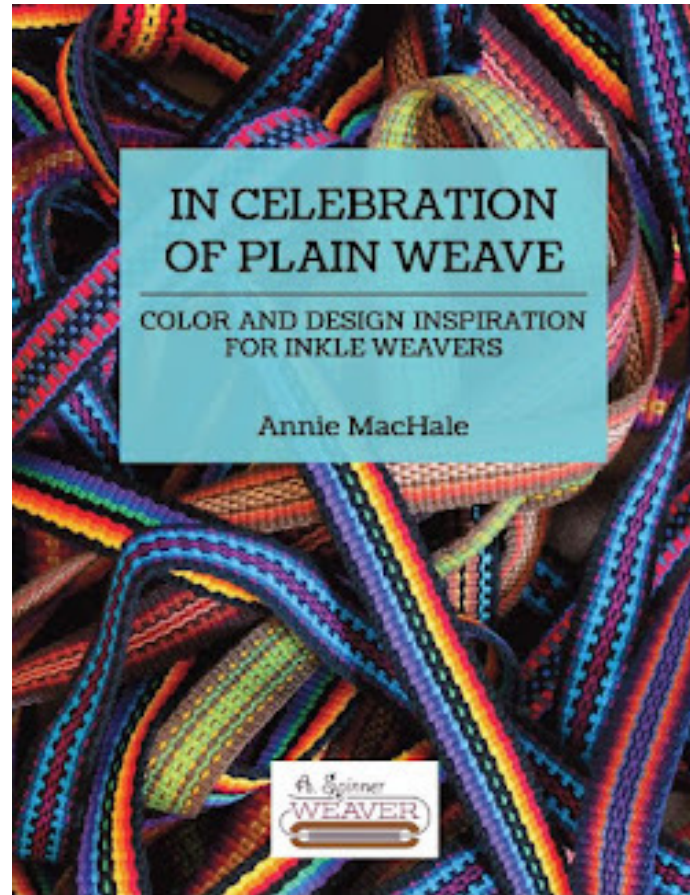

Annie will talk to us by zoom in preparation for her in-person inkle weave workshop a week later.

“What can you do with an inkle loom, anyway?” Annie has been exploring that question for over four decades, and in this talk she will reveal the hidden potential of inkle weave. She will share many stories of her inspiration and creation, and show a diverse array of items produced on her inkle looms

“So many guitar straps!”
