for 4, 8 and multiple shaft looms

Stacey Harvey-Brown

Stacey will be speaking to us from “The Loom Room,” her studio in Southern France.

She started weaving in 1991, and became obsessed with it. She teaches and exhibits all over the world. She has led multiple seminars at Complex Weavers and taught at Convergence. She has authored numerous books and articles.

In her talk she will share the variety of ways honeycomb weave can be adapted and translated from a simple two block weave to structures with complex visual and textural effects.
