

"NADINE SANDERS"

Beyond Plaid: Fiber Artists and Music of Scotland" with Nadine Sanders. This talk will introduce you to fiber artists in Scotland using their rich, cultural influence and heritage to produce work: plaid and beyond.

Nadine Sanders, known as "the Singing Weaver", weaves clothing, rugs, and wall hangings with a focus on pictorial design. She makes art quilts that combine weaving and quilting. Writings, songs, photography, people, and wilderness outings inspire her designs. She has presented over 150 workshops, programs, and retreats in the U.S., Canada, and the UK. She also leads "Threads, Ruins and Tunes" tours in Scotland.

Nadine and her mentor/co-author Joyce Harter wrote two books about the Theo Moorman technique. Nadine created the DVD and companion booklet Warping on a Shoestring. Her formal education is in fiber arts at the Oregon School of Arts and Crafts in Portland, OR and Speech-Communications from St. Olaf College in Northfield, MN.

