“Weave a Scarf” on a Saturday

with the Central Coast Weavers Guild

Have you ever wanted to try weaving? Then, don't miss the first Central Coast Weavers Guild first "Saturday Weave a Scarf", this is a one-day workshop where you will warp a rigid heddle loom and weave a scarf in one day.

In this workshop, you will choose from a variety of yarns with guidance from your workshop instructors, Diane Reynolds and Denise Schryver who will guide you in warping a rigid heddle loom - a good loom for first-time weavers - and then guide you in efficient techniques to finish weaving your scarf by the end of the day!

ABOUT Diane Reynolds: Diane has been weaving since 1984 on a Rigid Heddle loom and has added a floor loom to her studio. She is leader of the very popular special interest group: Little Looms which is primarily Rigid Heddle looms.

ABOUT Denise Schryver: Denise has been weaving since 2007 and loves to play with color, texture and different weaves. She expresses her craft on multi-shaft looms as well as the Japanese Saori loom.

THE DETAILS:

Saturday January 23, 2027

10am-4pm

Location shared upon registration

We provide all yarn, looms, and equipment. If you would like to use your own rigid heddle loom, you may do so, but please let us know in advance.

WORKSHOP FEE: $75.00. Includes instruction, yarns, and use of a rigid heddle loom.

NO REFUNDS AFTER January 15, 2027

Bring your own lunch and beverages.

Questions or interested but not sure about the date, reach out to Denise.schryver@gmail.com